policies and procedures

Our 'policies and procedures' are the rules about how we do things at Pyramid.

Following our policies and procedures helps to keep everybody safe.

The policies and procedures also tell us what to do if something goes wrong.

It is important that everybody at Pyramid can access and understand our policies and procedures.

The office team can help with this.

Please contact us if you would like support to read or understand this policy.

We can meet with you to talk about it. Or we can provide information in different format / language to suit your needs.

Travel expenses for freelance workers and volunteers

Freelance workers and volunteers are able to claim back reasonable travel costs for attending group sessions, up to a maximum of £13.50 per round trip. You can use public transport, or your own vehicle / bike.

Vehicle mileage is paid at 45p per mile. Bike mileage is paid at 20p per mile.

For weekly or monthly travel tickets, we will reimburse 25% of the cost (assuming you attended at least one activity per week for the duration of the ticket).

In exceptional circumstances, you may take a taxi instead of using public transport but this must be agreed in advance with the Assignment Manager (the office staff member responsible for your group / activity). Reasons for taking a taxi might include short-term injury, a disability, or to transport materials / equipment.

Other group / D-Team expenses

You will be reimbursed for expenses such as refreshments and materials you have taken to a session. Please always check our stores before purchasing materials. For larger purchases, please email finance@pyramid.org.uk and we will place the order for you.

Employee expenses

Employees can claim travel expenses for work-related activities (except their normal commute to and from work). Other work-related expenses must be agreed in advance with your line manager and will be reimbursed.

Vehicle mileage claims

Before we can pay a mileage claim, we are required to check that you are licensed to drive, that you have appropriate insurance, and that your car has a current MOT certificate and is taxed.

Your insurance must include 'driving for work purposes' (sometimes called 'business insurance'). This can also apply to voluntary work, so you must check with your insurer that you are covered. Pyramid is not responsible for paying any additional premium imposed by your insurer.

You will need to

- Show us your licence
- Confirm your insurance details
- Confirm your vehicle registration number so we can run a DVLA check

Making a claim

Most claims will be reimbursed on a monthly basis. If this would cause you financial hardship, please contact us in confidence and we will make an alternative arrangement with you.

Please email finance@pyramid.org.uk at the end of each month with your expenses claim (freelancers can add expenses to their invoice, it doesn't need to be separate).

Each expense must include

- A description of the item purchased
- The date of purchase / travel
- The group / activity it relates to
- The amount being claimed
- A scan / photo / screenshot of your receipt / proof of purchase
- For mileage claims, state the start and end location, and number of miles travelled

If it is your first claim, please also make sure to provide us with your bank details.

A blank claim form template can be provided if helpful to you – please ask.

You can also send in your expense claim after each session, these will be added together and reimbursed in one monthly payment.
