Pyramid is committed to making sure that everyone has equal access to the things we do, understanding that everybody is different, and not discriminating against people.

Bramley Baths is an independent swimming pool, gym and fitness centre.

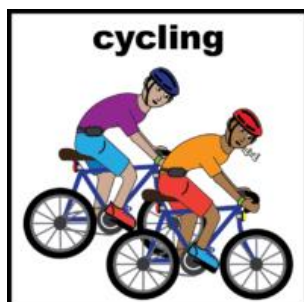

There are bus stops close by.

From Leeds city centre:

to Broad Lane: 49

to Bramley Centre Bus Station (10 minutes' walk to Bramley Baths): 14, 16, 16A, 80,86

There is bike parking outside.

There is free onsite parking to the side of the building which has disabled parking bays for Blue Badge holders.

There are also 2 disabled parking bays for Blue Badge holders directly outside the main entrance on Broad Lane.

There is lots of free on street parking on Broad Lane, directly outside the building, if the car park is busy.

The main entrance to Bramley Baths is flat and completely accessible. There is no need for a wheelchair ramp.

For wide wheelchairs the entrance doors needs fully opening, and staff are happy to do this.

The spaces that are open to public are entirely on the ground floor and accessible.

The staff rooms and the balcony to the swimming pool are up a flight of steps.

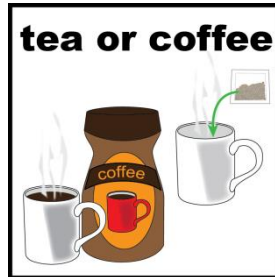

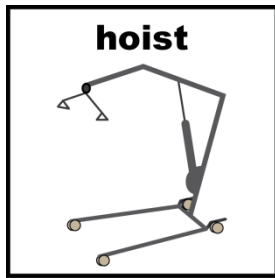

There is an all-genders accessible toilet and gender specific toilets.

The space is manoeuvrable with a wheelchair.

There are baby change facilities.

There is a hoist for accessing the swimming pool.

Please inform the front desk when you arrive and they will get the hoist ready for you whilst you get changed.

There is a vending machine in the entrance and hot drinks are available.

Assistive dogs are welcome.

There is no specific exercise area but Bramley Park is located just across the road.

There is no hearing loop.
